

Dear Intermediate Parents and Students,

We are excited to see you for the next school year. Attached is a list of the reading books for this summer. You will need to read two books this summer. The bolded book is required reading, and you can choose your second book from the list.

When you return in August, we will use the assigned reading for a class debate, literature circle, and some game activities.

Books I read:

My child has read both books:
